

YURIKO MIKAMI
— CELLIST —

Attained Diploma in cello at the Tokyo University of Arts in 1992.

Won the Ataka Prize as the best musician in the category of string instruments.

Continued studies at the Ecole Normale de Musique de Paris and obtained in 1997 the diploma of concert performer with the highest grade assigned unanimously.

CONTACT:
info@yurikomikami.com

YURIKO MIKAMI

— CELLIST —

Participated various tours with composer/pianist Roberto Cacciapaglia as a soloist at the Arcimboldi theater in 2007 and the Auditorium of Milan in 2008.

Presented the piece "Hope at Sunrise" via broadcast by J-Wave for the commemoration of the March 11 disaster in Fukushima as a joint performance by one of the best Japanese artists with Cesare Picco, pianist /composer.

Performed as a principal cellist or a soloist in various orchestras, including Accademia delle Opere, Milano Classica, Den Norske Opera in Oslo.

Also worked with the following orchestras:

Teatro alla Scala in Milan,

Filarmonica della Scala,

Pomeriggi Musicali, Guido Cantelli of Milan;

Parma Opera Ensemble of Parma,

Filarmonica Italiana of Piacenza.

Performed as a soloist in Sao Paulo the Concerto for Cello inspired by Anne Frank of Leopoldo Gamberini, accompanied by a symphony orchestra.

Participated in several tours with the actor Massimiliano Finazzer Flory in Italy and in Japan.

LINK

<https://youtu.be/fkgGWBCQeXQ>

<https://youtu.be/A7RY4-Do2aY>

<https://youtu.be/2b847z6QEKo>

YURIKO MIKAMI

— CELLIST —

Organized a string quartet "Modern Times" with the prima ballerina of the Teatro alla Scala of Milan, Gilda Gelati to perform in several theaters such as the Bibiena of Mantua, the Olimpico in Vicenza and Doge of Genoa.

In 2015 created an ensemble of Japanese musicians from Japan and other European countries called "Iroha Nippon" on the theme of the four seasons in Japan. The show performed at No'hma Theater in Milan received enthusiastic praises from the public and press.

From 2011 plays in the live transmission of Maurizio Crozza.

In April 2016 played at the presentation of the new Maserati SUV.

Also in April 2016 played accompanying the prima ballerina of the Teatro alla Scala in Milan, Gilda Gelati, the event organized by Vogue for the Princess Adelah of Saudi Arabia in Jeddah in Saudi Arabia.

YURIKO MIKAMI

— CELLIST —

PROJECTS FOR 2016

Casca il Mondo

Japanese fairy tale written and composed by Yuriko Mikami for two actors, a violinist, a cellist, a pianist and a percussionist.

Represented April 14, 2016 at the Teatro Oscar in Milan

Iroha Nippon Ensemble

Japanese popular music concert with a Japanese string quartet, a Japanese pianist and a player of traditional Japanese instruments

Music Meets Dance

Spectacle of dance and music with a dancer and a cellist

Cello performance

Classical music concert by solo cello on different themes

Tempi Moderni

Choreography concert with two dancers, a string quartet and a pianist

